Court Summons.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I have to make one more announcement and that is as follows:

I desire to bring to the notice of the House that the Munsiff of a certain court has sent to me a summons to be served on two Hon'ble Members of this House. A similar summons has been sent by the same Munsiff to the Secretary also.

According to the practice in the House of Commons which is applied to this House also under the Constitution, summons should not be served within the precincts of the House. Evidently, the Munsiff is not aware of the breach of privilege involved. As observed by the Speaker of the Madras Assembly in a similar case, the Speaker should not be made an agent of the court for serving summons on members.

I request the Leader of the House to see that summons are not sent to the Speaker or to the officers of this Secretariat for service on members.

Sri V. VENKATAPPA (Minister for Education).—Sir, I am sure that the Munsiff would not have sent the summons to the Hon'ble Speaker or to the Secretary if he was aware that any breach of privilege of this House was involved in his request.

I shall see that the breach of privilege involved in such requests is brought to the notice of all judicial officers concerned through proper channels and that no such requests are made in future.
